IMPORTANT NOTE

1. Lecture for Semester I, AY2026/2027 will commence on instructional week 1: 11 August 2025 (Tuesday). For info: 10 August 2026 is a gazetted public holiday due to National Day falling on a Sunday, 9 August 2026.
2. Refer to the NUS Academic Calendar for AY2026-2027 at <http://www.nus.edu.sg/registrar/calendar>.
3. All classes and examinations will be held in-person (F2F) by default. This might be subjected to changes depending on the directive from NUS.
4. Refer to our ECE Dept Customised Course Registration guide (<https://cde.nus.edu.sg/ece/graduate/graduate-course-registration/>) created for ECE graduate students, and about the applicable charges (if any) imposed on non-ECE graduate student enrolling for our ECE coursework graduate course.
5. Students are to ensure that there is no clash in BOTH class and examination timetable when selecting the course(s) to be enrolled for the semester.
6. Instructions on the course selection process, schedule for each round, application and allocation process for students is published at the CourseReg webpage (<https://nus.edu.sg/coursereg/index.html>). This is applicable to all NUS students unless otherwise stated.
 - i) Round 1 begin from 20 July 2026 (applicable to new and returning students)
 - ii) For subsequent rounds and “Submit Course Request” function, refer to the schedule published at CourseReg webpage for details.
7. Students must submit all course selections, course requests, prerequisite waiver requests, and appeals via the CourseReg@EduRec system. The ECE Department will not process enrolment, waiver, or appeal requests submitted by email, as all requests must go through the online allocation process for proper tracking.
8. For descriptions and course requisites on ECE graduate courses, refer to NUSMods (<https://nusmods.com/courses>) (use Chrome or Firefox).
9. A student is not allowed to enrol for an identical course which has been taken in an earlier degree from NUS, and/or repeat a passed course taken earlier for the purpose of improving of grades.
10. For married code with EE5000 and EE6000 series, research level students (EngD, PhD, M.Eng) is allowed to take the EE6000 series only.
11. UPDATE TO NOTE: Due to changes in programme structure and tuition fees for various self-funded MSc programme in NUS, a student may incur additional charges (per course basis) for enrolling in cross-Programme/Department/Faculty courses. Such charges (if applicable) will depend on the course host offering department and will be billed to student on top of the tuition fee in the applicable semester. Refer: <https://cde.nus.edu.sg/ece/graduate/graduate-course-registration/>
12. ECE Dept reserve the right to change the scheduled venue to accommodate the enrolment; and courses may be cancelled if the enrolment is low.
