Table B: BIZ Courses that can be double-counted as electives in each CDE major:

DOS3701	Supply Chain Management
*DBA3701	Introduction to Optimisation
DBA4811	Analytical Tools for Consulting

 DBA3701 Introduction to Optimisation and IE2110 Operations Research I are mutually precluded. Students who have completed either course are not allowed to read the other course.*

For a double-honours DDP, students need to complete the requirements in AppendixA plus 20 Units of BIZ honours requirement which may include FSP4003 Field Service Project.

#Business Honours Requirements (20 Units):

BBA Honours by Research Pathway

- a) BHD4001 Dissertation in Area of Specialisation (12 Units)
- b) Advanced Independent Study Courses (8 Units) not related to dissertation research area or FSP4003 Field Service Project (8Units)

OR

BBA Honours by Coursework Pathway

- a) Level-4000 business courses in area of specialization (12 Units)
- b) FSP4003 Field Service Project (8Units)

Students may double-count the Integrated Project course (8 Units) in CDE towards FSP4003 Field Service Project (8 Units) in BIZ. They must seek approval from BIZ to pursue one of the following options for the double-counting:

- (a) Work on a group project in the Integrated Project Course which has a significant business element. The business element will not be graded as a part of the Integrated Project Course, but students will require BIZ to endorse the project scope at the start of the project and submit an additional write-up to BIZ at the end of the project.
- (b) Read EG4301A Ideas to Start-up (12 Units) which is one the choices for the IntegratedProject Courses. EG4301A covers both technical and business development of new product or service. Each project team in EG4301A typically has between two and fourstudents. For students who choose this option, 8 Units from EG4301A will be double-counted towards FSP4003 while the remaining 4 Units will be counted as unrestricted electives.
