

Step Profiler

The step profiler is an instrument for measuring the thickness of a film or the depth of an etch on a flat sample.

Our instrument is able to measure height/depth of about 100nm up to a few microns.